THE TWELFTH ANNUAL REPORT.

DEAR FRIENDS,

Again we have the pleasure and joy of placing upon record at the close of our twelfth year the goodness of our God in allowing us to be the recipients of many tokens of His continued love; and although it is impossible to convey to the hearts of our friends exactly the experiences we have had and the paths our gracious God leads us through, yet we feel that our report must call forth from the hearts of all those who love our Lord Jesus Christ praise and thankfulness when they see unmistakable evidences that He to-day is willing to answer the prayers of those who simply trust Him. We can truly say "Thou hast been my help," and we have decidedly proved during the existence of this Home, covering the past twelve years, that according to promise "He will not fail thee." We pray, too, that these facts may help to confirm and encourage faith in the hearts of His children and that for those of our readers who are passing through a season of testing and trial real inspiration may come when they read that others are proving that "God is, and is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him." We have been greatly encouraged lately by the text in Psalm 68, 11: "The Lord gave the word: Great was the army of those that published it." Several of our old children have been to see us recently and have been telling us of their faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and how anxious they are to publish the news in their present surroundings. How glad we are that when "The Lord gave the word" for us to undertake this work that we willingly obeyed, and how humbled we feel when we see slowly but surely springing up from this work an increasing army going forth to publish the glad tidings.

It will be necessary for us again to state that the objects of the work are:—

1.—To receive destitute and motherless children;

2.—To be the means in God's hands of bringing those children to know the Lord Jesus Christ as their personal Saviour; and

3.—Of proving that God is able to answer prayer by appealing to Him alone for funds.

We do not bind ourselves to receive only motherless children, but deal with the cases in the order in which they are received, giving preference to the motherless, but all cases must prove their need of assistance. We have helped since the start one hundred and eighty cases, and have now 34 girls and 24 boys. We commenced this year with 55 children, and have added twelve, two children have been sent back to their friends, and seven have been placed out in service and work. The following are specimens of the applications we are constantly receiving:—A friend writes—"I am very anxious to get some children into a home. The father has been a very rough man, was converted about six years ago and has lived, I believe, a consistent Christian life since. He has five little children, and last autumn his wife died. The eldest child is a girl of 13 years, and the youngest is only about one year and ten months. The father feels that if the children could be got into a Home where they would be taught and looked after and be under Christian influence, it would be much better for them. One of the father's sisters, a girl of 18 years, has been keeping house for him and looking after the children. When I went to see the man, who has just met with an accident, everything was in a very dirty, untidy condition, and I hear his sister wants to go into a situation and not keep house for him any longer. Hoping that you will be able to do something for the children and praying that God will richly bless His work that you are doing." Another writes:—"I am told that you take into your home motherless boys. I am interested in the case of a boy of 11 years, who I am most anxious to get into a home. May I ask if yours is free, as the father is only getting very small wages. He has five children and is paying towards two of the youngest's keep, so cannot afford to pay anything towards the boy who is the eldest of the family. The man is worthy of assistance, as he is doing his best under very trying circumstances. The case can be well recommended, and I would send you full particulars should there be a chance of his being admitted to the home." Another writes:—"Can you help the following? The woman was left a widow about a month ago (husband dying with cancer in the throat). She is 24 years of age and is left with three children, a boy of four years, girl of two years, and a baby six months old. I am trying to get the baby into a home, and if the other two children could be provided for the mother will go back to domestic service. She is a refined woman and has brought up the children very well. I am hoping very much that you will be able to receive them. The mother has nothing whatever to depend on, and is at present receiving parish relief." Another:—"I am writing to ask if you will kindly give me some information respecting admission into your home. I am interested in two girls, aged 10 and 12, whose father is just dead. The stepmother has handed them over to the father's relatives who are anxious to get them into a good home. It is a most deserving case, and I trust suitable for your home."

We only wish we were able to take all such cases, and would ask our friends to unite with us in earnest prayer that if it be His will all barriers to progress may be removed.

One of the most encouraging features of the work is that our gracious Lord allows us to see some of the fruits of our labours among the children. The following are a few of the letters that we have received during the year from them, and will without doubt bring cheer to the hearts of the helpers as they have to us:—

(EXTRACTS).

"You will be surprised to hear from me again, but you must not think I have forgotten you or the dear Home, neither the truths that I learnt there. I am getting on well here. My mistress says I can have a day and a night off soon, and I am looking forward to spending same with you if you will kindly put me up." (Which of course we were pleased to do).

"Will you kindly forward me one of your Home boxes so that I can collect a trifle for your Christmas needs. I think it is my duty to do something for those that have done a good deal for me."

"It was one Sunday about five years ago, after returning from an open-air meeting (where we had blessing) to the indoor meeting, you asked at the close 'Is there any one not converted; if so, come to the front?' I was sitting next to . . . and she persuaded me to go. At last I went with the boy . . . First you prayed and I followed with a few simple words. I am very thankful I took this step. I have had many blessings and answers to prayer, for which I praise God."

"It is four years ago since I first gave my heart to the Lord. It was one Sunday in April in the year 1908. Mr. Aylott was conducting the meeting. He asked if anybody would like to be saved. I felt as though I did want to be a Christian, so while we were all kneeling I asked the Lord to open my heart and to make me one of His children. It was the happiest day I have ever spent. From that day to this I am still one of His. I have had many temptations, which I have asked Jesus to help me through. He has given me the victory. I have often had prayers answered for which I am very grateful to Him. By the grace of God I mean to go on to please and serve Him who gave His life for me. 'Be thou faithful unto death and I will give thee a crown of life.'"

Another writes:—"It was on the 12th day of February, 1905, the day after my tenth birthday, that I was born again, and I well remember it. We had just finished breakfast, and on leaving the table Miss Hutchins—who we called mother, and she was indeed a mother to us, came into the dining room and said: 'I want you to go to the Post Office and change this postal order—it was the first I had ever changed. I want you to be very quick, as I have to catch a train. I will meet you coming back.' Well, I started off as quick as ever I could go and changed the postal order all right and met mother and handed her the postal order. She said 'You are a good girl to be so quick; good-bye,' and went on her journey. I felt very happy on going home to think I had started the New Year with pleasing her. When I got almost in sight of the Home something said to me (which I believe was the voice of God), 'Yes, but you would feel much happier if you yielded your heart to Jesus who suffered that terrible death on the Cross for your sins.' Well, I felt that I could not go a step farther before doing so, and there and then I just gave, not only my heart, but asked Him to accept my life as well. I went home rejoicing, singing as I went

Oh happy day that fixed my choice
On Thee my Saviour and my God
Well may this glowing heart rejoice
And tell its raptures all abroad.

"I have had many answers to prayer since, some of which are these: I prayed that if it was God's will He would let my first place in service be in Woodford. I thank God that I am now in a very nice place quite near the Home. Then for my little sister, I prayed that God would open up the way so that she could come into the Home with us—she was then staying with a friend. Well, I prayed with all faith, and at last I was able to thank God for answering prayer by seeing my sister brought to the Home to stop. My first answer I well remember. It seems funny that it should have to do with another postal order. I was to change one, and with the money do some shopping. On arriving at the Post Office I felt in my pocket and found it was not there. I did not know what to do, so searched on the ground for some time but in vain; the thought then came to me that I had accepted Jesus as my friend and Saviour yesterday, so I will ask Him to help me find it. I did so, and scarcely went four steps further when I saw a piece of paper folded up on the ground, and on picking it up was rejoiced to find it was the order. I have had many more prayers answered since my tenth birthday, and I am now seventeen. I have much to praise God for in raising up such kind friends, for if it was not for them and the love of God in them, God only knows where I should have been to-day. I feel as though I cannot show my appreciation enough, and I am praying that if it be God's will that He will spare me so that at some future date I may become a worker in the Home and also that He will increase my desire, which is:

I want to be like Jesus,
Engaged in doing good,
So that of me it may be said
She hath done what she could."

I now come to the third part of our object, and although we do not intend to convey the idea that our Home is perfect and that we are in need of nothing, we do hold that the object we had in view has been maintained right through and our gracious Lord has answered in numberless and marvellous ways without our appealing for financial assistance. It will perhaps be interesting to show here the annual totals of money received since the start.

You will thus see that the income this year has been higher than ever before, and that the amounts received under donations and subscriptions are also the highest we have had; but on the other hand things have been much dearer during the past twelve months, so that we have not benefited as much as it would seem by the increase. We close the accounts again this year with the liabilities exceeding the income, and we are waiting upon God to supply this our need. We have received, too, many tokens of gifts in kind and clothes, and I will just enumerate a few. Many friends have sent in small quantities of dripping (which is very acceptable), cakes, stale bread and rolls, fruit, new-laid eggs, etc. One or two lady friends have made jam and marmalade. On more than one occasion we have been looking to God for meat, and he has touched the hearts of some to send in large joints, which have met our immediate need.

The neighbouring churches have again helped us by sending in the proceeds of their Harvest Thanksgivings. Our Christmas time was made exceedingly happy by the many friends who remembered the little ones. One friend sent 72 small pots of jam. Our Leytonstone friend, who set apart the 7th and 8th December as the Annual Pound Days for our work, sent us well over 300 lbs. of provisions and goodies, besides numerous articles of clothing and a ton of coal. The neighbouring Sunday Schools, too, did not forget us. One Sunday School sent a toy for each of the children. Another, toys, eatables, and clothing. From the children of another small Sunday School, six oranges, one apple, two mince-pies, and 1s. 2d. This was a great encouragement to us, as it came from a poor neighbourhood, and doubtless meant self-sacrifice. Other friends sent oranges, apples, preserved ginger, tomatoes, jam, biscuits, cakes, Christmas pudding, a large piece of Christmas beef, two pheasants, &c. On two occasions a friend has sent in blankets, which were very acceptable. Another, a counterpane made by an old lady of 72. One lady brought one cap, twelve pairs of boys' knickers, six boys' coats, which she had made herself, with two pounds of tea and 12 packets of cocoa. We have also received numerous parcels of new and second-hand clothes and boots, for which we praise God. The Boot Club has helped us to the extent of 39 pairs of boots, making a total of 135 pairs since our friend started same three years ago. This result has been brought about by a weekly collection of pennies, the total sum collected has been £26 7s. 1d., and has been a great boon to us. The Sewing Meetings have again greatly helped us by sending parcels of ready-made garments; and I have a report from the Seven Kings' Party, which is as follows:—

"We have much pleasure in issuing our Sixth Annual Report, and in doing so we are glad to say we have had another successful year's working, which we are pleased to state has been cheerfully undertaken by the members for the benefit of the children in the Home for Motherless Children, South Woodford. We hold our meetings for work every Tuesday afternoon from 3 to 6, and shall be pleased to welcome any kind friends who would like to help us in the work. We always open and close our meetings with prayer. We owe a debt of gratitude to those friends who from time to time come to read and speak to us, feeling assured the services rendered in this way are helpful to us all. Some of our members attended the Annual Meeting in connection with the Home, and spent an enjoyable time. We feel deeply grateful to those friends who have helped us with gifts of money and material during the year. We again thank our friend Mrs. C. H. White for her great help in cutting out all the garments we made. During the year, we are pleased to say, we have sent to the Home the following garments:—32 blouse tops, 13 pinafores, one counterpane, 12 large sheets, 13 large aprons, 12 nightdresses, 14 petticoats, 11 under garments, 21 pillow ticks, six bolster ticks, 13 pillow cases—total 148 garments. Again thanking all our friends who have assisted us in the past, we are hoping for another successful year's work in 1912, believing that God will again bestow His blessing on our labours.—Yours in the work, (Mrs.) H. HUTCHINGS, Hon. Sec."

From the balance-sheet of this Sewing Meeting we see the income amounted to £8 4s. 6d. and the expenditure £6 7s. 8d., balance carried forward being £1 16s. 10d.

The Eleventh Annual Meetings were held on the 8th June last. We had a large tent erected on the Home grounds for the first time, and the meetings were a great success. Rev. John Jermyn, of Wanstead, presided at the afternoon meeting, and said it was delightful to see how for eleven years the workers there had been giving their lives to that splendid work. They had done this in faith without asking people for money, though they asked God. Rev. A. A. Savage said that all the time he had been in Woodford his sympathies had been with this work, and he believed that no work in the parish was more worthy of their prayers and sympathy. The sympathies of his church in George Lane with the Home was very great. The Rev. G. A. Hamson and Rev. Robert Spurgeon gave interesting addresses. After tea the evening meeting was presided over by Mr. V. G. Levett, and addresses full of helpfulness and encouragement were delivered by Pastor Josiah Wilson, Rev. W. P. Hicks, and Mr. J. A. Aylott. Mrs. Charles Barclay again came to both meetings and gave addresses that we shall not easily forget. We had numerous tokens through this day, among them being a friend who came forward and offered to pay the expenses of the day.

Our children joined this year with the neighbouring Sunday Schools in an excursion to Dovercourt, and had a lovely time. One friend sent £3 for the children to spend between them, and the neighbouring churches and other friends sent in the necessary amount to pay all expenses. This we feel was certainly money well invested, and it did one good to see the children enjoying themselves. We have just heard the result of the Sunday School Union Scripture Examination, 12 passing out of a total of 20.

God graciously opened the way again this year for the workers to have their annual rest, sending along money specially for this purpose. I have also had the pleasure of joining Mr. F. Sackett on his Gospel Car, when we held a fortnight's mission on Miller's Field, Canterbury, and a week's mission in one of the large Kentish hop fields, the privilege of taking numerous week-end services and other meetings, both indoor and out, and God has been graciously pleased to own and bless His own word; I shall be glad to go in future, where called, to speak for the Master.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

You will see from the account under this heading that the children have done well this year for their missionary fund, and we have been able to continue the support of a native Indian lad, who is being trained in Hindupur as an evangelist. The children have from the contents of their school boxes been able to keep Stephen for several years now, and look upon him as theirs. The money is obtained through their own energies, and we are glad even in a work of this kind to encourage them to think of others. Some of the girls sew, others sell sweets and "Christian Heralds," placing the profits in their boxes, whilst others deny themselves in other ways to benefit the fund.

The visiting hours for relatives and friends of the children are every Saturday between 6 and 8 p.m. (which time must be strictly adhered to unless special permission is obtained), and for visitors any afternoon between 3 and 5, except Sundays and Mondays.

We close our report again this year with the prayer that God may bless all who have in any way helped this work, and from what we hear God has indeed blessed many in answer to our daily prayers. That He may continue to bring about His glory through the work and its supporters is the earnest desire of Miss Hutchin, workers, and

Yours in the Hope of His coming,
HERBERT WHITE.
