EDITORIAL NOTES.

With this fifth number of our "Links" we close our thirteenth year and at once raise a note of grateful thanks to our gracious God for permitting us the great privilege of again recording His dealings with this work. We feel like the Psalmist of old who said, "My soul shall make her boast in the Lord, the humble shall hear thereof and be glad." We realise to-day as much as ever that we have nothing to boast of in ourselves, but we can and do boast in Him and glory in the fact that "He is" and "is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him." Further we realise that as we tell others what He has done for us and through us it shall bring joy to the hearts of those who belong to Him, for "the humble shall hear thereof and be glad."

We started the year with 55 children and have now 61 in the Home; three boys and two girls have left for work and service, and three girls and one boy have been returned to their relatives on account of the surviving parent re-marrying, or for other reasons.

The health of the children has been well maintained during the past year, an outbreak of measles at Christmastime being the only thing to report.

The income has been the largest we have received amounting to over £642, the next largest being £493 received the previous year. We had a splendid send off in May, 1912, by a special thankoffering for £100 which came as a re-assuring token of His Power and willingness to supply the needs of those who trust in Him.

We have also been greatly cheered by the gifts in kind and clothes (old and new), boots, blankets, etc., which we have received during the twelve months and which have greatly assisted us in our fight for the children

The Sewing Meetings have again rendered us good service during the year and we give here the report which our Seven Kings friends have sent. "We have great pleasure in issuing this our Seventh Annual Report and we are glad to say that we have had another successful year, working as we do for the benefit of the children at South Woodford. We still hold our meetings for work every Tuesday afternoon from 3 to 6 p.m., and shall be most pleased to welcome any friends who would like to help us in this good work. We owe a debt of gratitude to those who from time to time come to read and speak to us of Him who is the Giver of all good gifts, feeling that the service rendered has been beneficial to us all. We very much regret to state that several of our members have been laid aside during the year by illness and that has somewhat curtailed the number of garments we have been able to make this year. Some of our members, as usual, attended the Annual Meetings in May, at South Woodford, and thoroughly enjoyed themselves there. Our best thanks are also due to our dear friend, Mrs. C. H. White, for her great assistance in cutting out all the garments for making, and also to those kind friends who assisted us with monetary donations and gifts of goods. During the year 1912 the following garments and boots have been forwarded to the Home:—38 pinafores, 12 nightdresses, 24 undergarments, 11 jumpers, 2 pillow cases, 2 blouses, 1 pillow tick, 1 overall, 1 counterpane, 20 pairs stockings, total 112 garments, and 16 pairs of boots. Again thanking all those friends who assisted us in the past, we look forward to another successful year's work in 1913. Trusting that God will abundantly bless our labours in the future as He has done in the past. Yours in the work, (Mrs.) H. Hutchings, Hon. Sec.

o o o o o

God bless these and all friends who are sewing on behalf of this work.

o o o o o

Our friend responsible for the Boot Club has been continuing her kind labours and has sent in no less than 39 pairs during the past year, having collected in pennies from her friends the sum of £7 17s. 0d. These have been greatly appreciated and we feel sure that the "Inasmuch" blessing shall be the portion of all who have helped in this.

o o o o o

We praise God for the many friends who have been used by Him as a blessing to this, His work, and pray daily that in blessing others they themselves may be blessed.

o o o o o

We are sorry to report that our dear friend, Mrs. Fowler, of "Glebelands," Woodford, who was one of our first subscribers has been called to her Eternal Rest. Another friend, Mr. F. J. Braham, has been called Home after a painful illness, and we would ask our readers to specially pray for these bereaved ones. This makes the fourth friend we have lost by death during the last few months.

o o o o o

Friends desirous of seeing over the Home can do so any afternoon between 3 and 5 o'clock except Sundays and Mondays and children can be seen by their relatives and friends every Saturday between 6 and 8 o'clock.

o o o o o

"Children's Home Links" will be sent to any friends on receipt of 6d. post free for the year. No. 6 will be out in August containing the annual Meeting speeches.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

o o o o o

The work under this head is still well maintained. We have an earnest body of teachers who take a great interest in our children and it is encouraging to note that several of them come from different parts of the neighbourhood Sunday by Sunday to help us in this work. From the Sunday School account you will see that the class box collections were very good,—an improvement on last year.—The children are still keenly interested in the support of Stephen who is a native of Hindupur and who is being trained there as an evangelist. Our children have entirely kept this lad for the past several years from Sunday School funds. Through the kindness of churches and friends our children were able to join the neighbouring Sunday Schools in their united excursion to Clacton-on-Sea last June which they greatly appreciated and we are D.V. looking forward to join again this year, the date fixed being 25th. June.

A FORWARD MOVE.

Our friends will be glad to know that we have been enabled during the past month to take a forward step. For the past eight years I, with my wife and family, have occupied three rooms in the Home. The way has now been opened for us to take a small house opposite, which our brother, Mr. Fred Sackett is sharing with us. We find this to be more beneficial, as our little family of three are growing up, and it will be to their advantage to live under a separate roof. Further we are now enabled to increase the Home to the extent of about six more children and to the better re-arrange the place, and so make it more comfortable for workers and children. We would ask for the special prayers of our friends concerning this step, as we do not intend to draw from the "Home" funds for our support, but to rely only upon the arm of God to supply our small needs, and only such funds as come in, marked specially for us, shall be devoted for the upkeep of "Home Cot," which we have named our new abode. We feel that this will be more glorifying to God. Whilst we have been living at the "Home" all money sent specially to us has been placed in the Home funds towards our keep, it will be encouraging to know that the necessary clothes, etc., have always been specially supplied by our Gracious God.

13th Annual Meetings.—Programme.

AFTERNOON MEETING.

REV. C. L. THORNTON DUESBERY, M.A. in the chair.

3.30. Hymn "O Breath of God."

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1. O Breath of God, breathe on us now,
And move within us while we pray;
The spring of our new life art Thou,
The very light of our new day. 2. Oh, strangely art thou with us, Lord,
Neither in height nor depth to seek;
In nearness shall Thy voice be heard;
Spirit to spirit Thou dost speak. | 3. Christ is our Advocate on high;
Thou art our Advocate within:
Oh, plead the truth, and make reply
To every argument of sin. 4. But ah, this faithless heart of mine!
The way I know; I know my Guide
Forgive me, O my friend Divine,
That I so often turn aside. |
|--|---|

5. Be with me when no other friend
The mystery of my heart can share;
And be thou known, when fears transcend
By Thy best name of Comforter.

3.35. Prayer, REV. JOHN JERMYN, Wanstead.

3.40. "Show me the way to Jesus," by the children.

3.45. Chairman's Address.

4.0. Madame ANNIE RYALL will sing.

4.5. Miss R. A. HUTCHIN will speak.

4.15. "Little Ones may come to Thee," by the children.

4.20. Address by MR. GEORGE GOODMAN.

4.40. Madame ANNIE RYALL will sing.

4.45. Mrs. FLORENCE L. BARCLAY will speak.

5.20. Hymn "Only An Armour Bearer"

1. Only an armour-bearer, firmly I stand,
Waiting to follow at the King's command;
Marching, if "Onward" shall the order be,
Standing by my Captain, serving faithfully.

CHORUS—Hear ye the battle cry! "Forward!" the call;
See, see the falt'ring ones backward they fall.
Surely my Captain may depend on me,
Tho' but an armour-bearer I may be, (repeat).

2. Only an armour-bearer, now in the field,
Guarding a shining helmet, sword, and shield;
Waiting to hear the thrilling battle cry,
Ready then to answer, "Master, here am I!"
3. Only an armour-bearer, yet may I share,
Glory immortal, and a bright crown wear;
If in the battle to my trust I'm true,
Mine shall be the honours in the Grand Review.

5.25. Prayer, REV. ROBERT SPURGEON.

EVENING MEETING.

V. G. LEVETT, Esq., in the chair.

7.0. Hymn "All hail the power"

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1. All hail the pow'r of Jesu's name !
Let angels prostrate fall ;
Bring forth the royal diadem,
And crown Him, Lord of all. 2. Crown Him, ye martyrs of our God,
Who from His altar call ;
Extol the stem of Jesse's Rod,
And crown Him, Lord of all. 3. Ye chosen seed of Israel's race,
A remnant weak and small,
Hail Him who saves you by His grace,
And crown Him, Lord of all. | 4. Ye Gentile sinners, ne'er forget
The wormwood and the gall ;
Go, spread your trophies at His feet,
And crown Him, Lord of all. 5. Let every kindred, every tribe,
On this terrestrial ball,
To him all majesty ascribe,
And crown Him, Lord of all. 6. Oh that with yonder sacred throng
We at His feet my fall ;
Join in the everlasting song,
And crown Him, Lord of all. |
|--|---|

7.5. Prayer, Pastor JOSIAH WILSON.

7.10. "We are trying to follow Jesus" by the children.

7.15. Chairman's Address.

7.30. Madame ANNIE RYALL will sing.

7.35. Mr. HERBERT WHITE will speak.

7.50. Medical Report by Dr. F. A. MARTIN FLEGG.

7.55. "The Children's Friend" by one of the girls.

8.0. Address by REV. EDWARD HURDITCH.

8.15. Madame ANNIE RYALL will sing.

8.20. Mrs. FLORENCE L. BARCLAY will speak.

9.0. Address by the REV. A. J. PALMER.

9.15. Doxology.

Benediction, REV. W. PERCY HICKS.

Praise God—

For the Forward Move.

That five children have been sent out to work and service four of whom are on Lord's side.

Pray for—

Our converted children both here and away, that they may "grow."

Definite results of conversion among our children.

Two more workers.

A further forward move.

The Monthly Prayer and Praise Meeting is held in the Home at 3 p.m. every first Thursday in the month. You are welcome.
