

church, toys, oranges and groceries and three cot quilts. A Leytonstone Sunday School Class, toys. Woodford Liberals, toys and three garments, two pots jam, one box toffee, one tin toffee and preserved fruits. Stratford, "I herewith enclose postal order for 11s., the result of a collection made on Friday evening at the share out of our Sick Benefit Club. Hoping you will accept this small gift for your work." West Mersea, "Just a line to wish you and all the big family the very best of wishes for Christmas and the New Year. Am enclosing £5, two of which for your own personal use." New London Street, one guinea. North Brixton, "I am pleased to be able to send you the enclosed cheque for £7 18s. 4d. Our Sunday School scholars brought in over £4 yesterday, but ere the day closed the sum amounted to £7 8s. 4d. To-day a warm friend of mine gave me 10s. This makes our gift more than last year, although I expected it to be less. I know that it has been raised at great sacrifice with some. We want you all to have a real good Christmas dinner and tea, and should like all the money spent for Christmas Day. Our scholars send fond love to all in your Home, and wish me to express their big wish that you will have a very merry Christmas. The church joins in this also." Forest Gate, "Enclosed please find note for £1, being my mothers' subscription to the Home. I find it is not due till next February, but mother seems particularly to want to send it now." Leytonstone, 10s. 6d. Walthamstow, "I have much pleasure in enclosing £2 10s. 0d. from our Missionary Fund and wish you much success in your good work." Bow, "I have much pleasure in sending £1 for the Witness of Faith in these days of apostacy and unbelief. God bless you and yours and the children. II. Peter, i., 16."

20th.—Leytonstone, six boxes bon-bons, 2 lbs. biscuits. London, six boxes bon-bons and two boxes tinned fruit. Woodford, two flannel petticoats. Forest Gate, 5s. Surbiton, "The girls in my Bible Class, with two or three friends in the church, have brought me some gifts for the children. Our little M—— is struggling to finish knitting a small frock by to-morrow. We have just been out to buy the toys and wonder whether they will go in stockings or have you a tree. I should be glad if you could send just a few reports or a little literature re the work, as I will pass it on to those who have given, as I also want to create interest. The enclosed 2s. 6d. from a friend who thought it would help rail, but I don't need it; yet another 2s. 6d. from S., making 5s." A Walthamstow Young Men's Class, 12s. 6d. London, "I enclose cheque value five guineas. You will notice I have increased amount this year, because I expect money comes in slower these times, and therefore a little extra will be useful to you just now. I have several old tennis balls and some children's papers which I will send if you like to have them. Hope you and yours are all well, and pray for God's blessing on you all." Buckhurst Hill, "Enclosed is a small cheque from Bible Class towards your work, with best wishes that a blessing may rest upon your efforts." Brighton, "It is with pleasure that I enclose £3 to help forward your noble work for the Master in caring for His little ones. May He guide and help you to win them to Himself, and then they will have their life before them to serve Him and become noble men and women, helpful in every way to make this world a better place, which is very much needed at the present time. May God richly bless you all and give you a real happy Christmas and a very prosperous New Year in His cause." Walthamstow, 10s. Westeliff, two guineas. Woodford, £1 and £1 4s. Finsbury Park, "The time has come round once more for you to hear from me. I sincerely trust you have had a good year and that your work for the children has been blessed—though I do not doubt it. I hope you will have a good time this Christmas and plenty of good things. I am sending 30s., which I should like used for the boys. I do hope you are all keeping well. You can do so much if your health is good. You see I appreciate that now that I can do so little."

21st.—Spilsbury, two large pork pies. Chingford, one rocking horse. Brighton, 10s. Barkway, one guinea. Woodford Wells, £1. Woodford Boot Club, £1 14s. 6d. Stratford, 10s. S. Woodford, Anon., 10s.

22nd.—Leytonstone, two large parcels of toys, girdles, etc. Woodford Working Party, 15 garments. Leyton, 7s. 6d. A Walthamstow minister, 10s. Walthamstow, 10s. Alexander Park, "Am enclosing £2 for Christmas goodies for the kiddies. Please take 10s. for your extra special ones at Home Cot. I wish I were a millionaire and I would send a bumping cheque, but if I were I could not send warmer wishes or prayers for your work." Barking, 10s. A lady called and left 10s. on behalf of her nurse. Woodford, £1 from Brian and Denis. Leytonstone, "I have to-day sent off a parcel of little garments which the two girls at the office have helped me to make. I hope you will find them useful. The enclosed £1 is a little gift from my sister and I, which please accept as a very small token with our Christian love."

23rd.—Ten shillings worth of cakes, Woodford. A friend and his wife from Walthamstow came in their car and left a quantity of good things—cereals, fruit, sweets, etc. Woodford, 20 lbs. beef. Alexander Park, a bag of oranges. Woodford, £1, "With grateful appreciation and affectionate wishes for the happiest Christmas and New Year." Leytonstone, two guineas. Dursley, "I am enclosing a little gift to the Lord from my wife and self as a contribution towards your boys and girls. We trust that you are well, and that the Lord continues to bless you in your labours both in caring for the children and in the Gospel. 'Not one thing hath failed of all the good things which the Lord your God spake concerning you.'" Crewe, £1 10s. 0d. Wanstead, 7s. 6d. Leytonstone, £3, being an offering at the close of an address at Men's Meeting.

25th.—Wanstead, fruit and toys. From a Walthamstow Church, a quantity of sandwiches, mincepies, etc., left over from a breakfast. Sutton, 10s. Plumstead, 7s. 6d. Leytonstone, "You will remember last Christmas morning you received on behalf of my class 5s. in farthings. This year we have managed to do a little better by 3s. 6d. The children have great pleasure in handing over these farthings for your cause."

27th.—London, "Cheque enclosed for £10 with best wishes to all at Home Cot." Anstey, £2 5s. 6d; "Enclosed is freewill offering taken at our services on Sunday to be used as God may lead." Leyton, two guineas, with "At a recently-held committee meeting in connection with Men's Service I was instructed to forward this donation in aid of the excellent work that you are doing in connection with the Homes. With season's greetings to you and your large family."

Wanstead, "I am enclosing cheque £2 17s. 6d., which please divide as follows: £1 10s. 0d. towards expenses of the Home, £1 for your own bairns for you to buy something for each, and a further 7s. 6d. towards the expenses of the work which I collected at lunch to-day, so shall be pleased if you will let me have separate receipts. Can you also let me have two copies of 'Links' with report of last Annual Meeting?"

29th.—A Walthamstow Church, £3 17s. 6d. Leytonstone, "We had a special offering in our school last Sunday afternoon on behalf of your work for the Lord at Woodford, and I have much pleasure in enclosing £2 2s. 2d. With this little gift will you also accept our best wishes for the coming year and the assurance of our prayerful interest in your labour of love for our blessed Lord. We trust that His own work in your souls will flourish to His praise and glory, and that His work in your service will be similarly fruitful. With hearty greetings in our Lord Jesus Christ." Woodford, £20 3s. 0d. brought to us by one of our neighbouring friends as a result of an after-dinner Christmas Day collection organised and carried out by himself to show "neighbourly love." Wakefield, Anon. £2. "Am glad to be enabled to pass on the enclosed which is a portion of what has been handed to me for Benevolent Institutions. Accept the same for benefit of the Home and its needs. May the Lord bless you abundantly in your efforts of mercy."

30th.—Canning Town, 13s.

JANUARY

1st.—Walthamstow, "Once again I have great pleasure in sending 7s. 6d. as my small gift to help in your work for the dear little children. I am so sorry to be late in sending. I hope the children had a very happy Christmas and are all well, and trust they will have a happy New Year.—From One in Sympathy." From a Woodford Mission, "On Sunday last we had our Annual Gift Day and the School Committee decided that the cash collection of 30s. should be forwarded to you. Wishing you and all the dear children a bright and happy New Year." Crewe, £1 10s. 0d. Norbury, 5s. Crofton Park, 5s., with "The Lord is good and a Stronghold in the day of trouble, and He knoweth them that trust in Him. Some trust in chariots, etc., but we will remember the Name of the Lord our God." Hows' that, old chap, and don't forget it. Now then, when we met together at Christmas as a united family and the baby (so I am grandpa) we thought of your large family, and so at dinner table told everybody and enclosed is the result. Oh that it were £5 and more! The Lord increase the amount and give you a continual company of believers in liberality. God bless you and your beloved and five children (all of your own) and give you some splendid cheers, just like you did to me when I was looking up and you were cheering me up. I'll not forget. However, a happy New Year till Jesus comes."

2nd.—Leytonstone, "Please find enclosed my yearly collection, being £2 12s. 0d. I am sorry it is not more. From the L.B. Bible Class." Brentwood, 10s. Worcester, £5, "With all good wishes for 1923 and that you may have the blessing of the knowledge of a Father's care over you and your work." Buckhurst Hill, "Enclosed please find 11s. 6d. from the share of the B.C.B.H. in the Christmas collection."

4th.—Buckhurst Hill, the Alfred Road Mission invited us to tea and pleasant evening at the Palmerton Road Schoolroom, giving the children a splendid time, and at the close handed me a cheque for £2 10s. 6d.

5th.—A Walthamstow friend brought £1 3s. 6d. Ilford, 10s.

8th.—Buckhurst Hill, 100 oranges.

8th.—Wimbledon, £1. Bedford, £2.

9th.—Portslade, "Greetings in the Name of our dear Lord Jesus. Let me wish you a happy and prosperous New Year. Am enclosing 10s. from our Mission Sunday School box. How we wished it were more, but I know all the littles tell up, so trust you may get many such mites. We were interested in the 'Links' to see how our Heavenly Father comes in and blesses you." Leytonstone, £1 9s. 1½d., being the amount collected by carol singing organised by a blind friend. "Little Ronnie," 10s. Merton Women's Meeting, 9s. 6d.

11th.—Woodford, large box of cakes.

12th.—Muswell Hill, parcel of clothes. An old girl, 10s.

15th.—Woodford, parcel of books, two pots jam. Milton Upton, 10s.

18th.—Woodford Green, 10s. From a Woodford Private School, 4s. 6d. Shoebury, "It is with great joy and thanksgiving to our Heavenly Father that we have been enabled to hold our Annual Pound Day for the benefit of the Orphanage. We have sent by rail carriage paid three boxes containing 327 lbs. groceries and fruit, five sacks of potatoes and carrots, one woollen scarf, and £2 10s. 0d. in cash. I think you will find enough fruit for each child to have one orange, and one apple. I hope you will receive them safely and feel sure they will be acceptable in helping to feed your little flock. Trusting you are all keeping well and praying that God's richest blessing may be with you all." Walthamstow, "Once again I am pleased to be able to send my small thankoffering of £1. I have found another friend who gave me 5s. Am pleased to be able to speak on your behalf for the Masters' work. He has been so good to me, for more than twelve months, in giving me strength each day to wait upon my aged aunt who is so ill with cancer. Isaiah lvii." Thornton Heath, £1 14s. 0d.

19th.—Leytonstone Sunday School Class, four pairs bloomers, two chemises. The Young People's Abstainers' Union gave a very nice party to our children to-day in the Latchett Road Hall (kindly lent), and was greatly appreciated by all. Woodford, "As a result of our C.E. effort at carol singing, we are able once again to send a small contribution to help your work among the children. We have much joy in enclosing £1 11s. 6d., and pray that during 1923 you may experience abounding joy in your work for the Lord. 'He who clothes the sparrows' will provide for the lambs He has entrusted to your care." A Wanstead friend called and left £1. Another friend from Leytonstone gave me one guinea and another £1.

20th.—Forest Gate, "I am sending the enclosed 5s. 6d. as a very small gift from a few little junior C.E. members. We had hoped to send as much as last year, but circumstances all round have prevented us.

At any rate it comes with a lot of love from the Look Out Committee."

23rd.—Thornton Heath, "Your letter to hand this morning. I am sorry you have had sickness in the Home; hope it will soon pass away. Sickness always means extra expense. Kindly accept the enclosed 10s. towards the same. The Lord will meet all your needs. He has given to us exceeding great and precious promises that by these we might be partakers of the Divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world."

27th.—16s. 6d., Stratford, handed to me after speaking at an Annual Police Meeting. Highgate, "On behalf of teachers and scholars of our Sunday School, I have the pleasure to enclose £1 13s. 8d. towards the Homes."

28th.—Shoebury, "Please find enclosed £1 handed to me this last week for Pound Day, rather late, but not too late to be of service to you. Praying that God's richest blessing may rest upon you all in your work and labour of love for Him till He come."

29th.—Handed to me by a well-wisher on Tower Hill, £1. Doncaster, "It is with great pleasure I send to you £7. I hope things are well with you all. We have had several souls saved of late in connection with our mission. The Lord is at hand."

30th.—From "The Bible Witness," 10s. Muswell Hill, £2. Totton, 10s. Westcliff, £1.

FEBRUARY

3rd.—L.B.R. Sewing Meeting, six shirts and six sheets.

5th.—Chingford, 10s. An old girl, £2.

6th.—Roby, £5.

7th.—A Worcester Mission, "Am so sorry to be so late in sending £1 as part of proceeds from Christmas carol singing. We often think of you and pray God will richly bless you in your noble work of saving the young lives. I know so much its many difficulties and discouragements and yet it has many, many joys. The future of our nation depends on the child life of to-day, hence the great need to rescue and save them both in soul and body." Wanstead, "I have pleasure in enclosing £3 towards the work, and trust it is being blessed and workers encouraged." Chingford Hatch, parcel of new garments.

9th.—Teddington, "I have much pleasure in enclosing £1 towards your God-blest work, and trust the workers are being helped and encouraged and strengthened day by day by the knowledge that Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, to-day and for ever. Hallelujah, and 'His compassions fail not, for He knoweth our frame, He remembereth that we are dust.'" Doncaster, "Again the blessed Lord has enabled me to send you a small gift for the maintenance of His lambs. Please find enclosed 10s. May God bless you in your glorious work and get all the lambs into the fold for Christ, which is the most important part of the work."

11th.—From the A.M. Oil Co., four tubs for washing. Woodford, one loaf. Clacton, two coats.

12th.—Leytonstone, £1.

14th.—London, "I was thinking of you and praying for you only this morning in the train and now enclose the £10 I had decided to send. Yours in His love." Westcliff, "I have pleasure in once again sending you a little help in your great work for the children who need it so much, and also to send you my very heartiest wishes for the continued prosperity of the Home, and that God's blessing will still rest upon all your endeavours, and that you will be sustained through another year of work. Am enclosing £10." Leyton, 10s.

16th.—Leytonstone, "I have pleasure in sending you £5 to help in your good work."

20th.—Ware, 10s. Merton, "Am sending on 14s. from our Women's Meeting. We are so pleased to help you, and may God ever bless you in your work for Him."

24th.—Mersea, 300 new laid eggs. Woodford, 7 lbs. cocoa. Hornchurch, £1 10s. 0d. Handed to me at Anstey Chapel, £1. London, an old Bank friend, 4s. 6d. Brighton, 4s. 6d. Woolwich, "Enclosed please receive a little gift, 5s., for your work for the dear Master. I know my father loved to help when he could, and therefore I should like to keep in touch with you."

26th.—Cann Hall C.E., £3. Chingford, 10s.

MARCH

2nd.—Stroud Green, 2s. 6d.

3rd.—Wakefield, 10s. Mill Hill, box of S.H. garments. Broadbridge, £1. Woodford Bridge, £1 with "I think about this time of the year I usually contribute a little towards the support of your big family, and trust your worth of faith and labour of love is still having rich reward."

5th.—Westcliff, one pair of knickers.

7th.—Hackney, two guineas. Kilmalcolm, "Cheque enclosed £3, with kind regards and Christian love from both of us here. Trusting you are all well at the Homes. The open-air caravans are aggressive as usual and sinners convicted from the preaching from them the Gospel message."

8th.—The Girls' Guild from Fillebrooke came and gave the children a most enjoyable tea and entertainment, which was much appreciated by all. From a neighbour, "Thank you so much for copy of 'Linke.' I am so glad to read God is still blessing His great work. I feel constrained to spare you 2s. 6d." An old boy, 15s.

9th.—Leytonstone, "Just a little thankoffering, £5."

12th.—Catford, "Once again it is my privilege to send you the enclosed one guinea from our boys and girls. It is sent with warm Christian love and greetings to the children under your care." Woodford Green, 10s., "With grateful thanks for help and cheer, for any purpose you see fit." Leytonstone, "You will be sorry to hear that I lost my husband on February 13th very suddenly, and as I am leaving the South of England for good I wondered if you could do with a few things I wish to give you—blankets, sheets, pillow-cases, tablecloths, bedcovers, eiderdown, curtains, and anything in the way of food left in cupboard—a lot of marmalade and jam—and could you do with a dinner service and tea set? I am sending some things for the children—books, postcard albums, etc. (second letter). Enclosed is cheque £5 from my sister and me for the Homes, with 10s. of it for a little washing of things. I hope to send the things over on Wednesday. Wishing your good work every success. Shall hope to hear from you from time to time. We were greatly helped and cheered by the above gift, quite a cartload of useful things came and many items we were in great need of. Our hearts go out in sympathy to this dear friend, and we pray that God's sustaining grace may be her portion in this great trial through which she has been called to pass.

13th.—Sidmouth, two guineas. Ealing, old girl, 5s. Walthamstow, £1 handed to me after services. Central Hall, "I have much pleasure in sending £1 from our Young Men's Bible Class, assuring you of our sympathy and prayers."

22nd.—Twickenham, "Please accept enclosed one guinea from our Sunday School." An old boy, 10s.

24th.—London, "Enclosed please find £10 to help on the work." Forest Gate, "Finding the toys were acceptable at Christmas time, I am sending chocolate eggs for the kiddies." Three sacks of cabbages from London. Canonbury, a friend called and left 5s.

26th.—Leytonstone, "At our last Council meeting of officers of the G.L.B. I was asked to forward you enclosed 10s. 6d. for the funds of the Home, wishing you every success." Chingford, 10s. Handed to me in London, 5s.

29th.—Muswell Hill Working Party, five shirts, one overall, one jacket, one frock, and second-hand garments. Leytonstone, four pairs socks. Canonbury, one gross boot laces. Woodford, about 40 lbs. jam.

30th.—Woodford, 100 buns. Woodford, 100 buns. Woodford, 200 buns. Hounslow, £1.

APRIL

2nd.—A Woodford Sunday School, 37 chocolate eggs, 89 new laid eggs. Another Sunday School, 87 new laid eggs. Handed to me at Anstey, £1.

4th.—Woodford, bag of potatoes. Woodford, 7 lbs. cocoa. Woodford Green, bowl of dripping.

5th.—10s. handed to me in Hyde Park by a friend from Doncaster. Thornton Heath, £2. Bedford, 4s. 6d.

7th.—Kingston, two guineas and 10s.

10th.—Parcel of books, toys, etc.

11th.—Champion Hill, from a friend in the Bank where I used to be, one guinea.

15th.—Stratford, offering taken at Women's Meeting, £1 5s. 6d. Woodford, 10s. Woodford, £18 5s. 1d., being the result of an evening's entertainment organised at their own initiative by two local postmen.

20th.—Walthamstow, £6 10s. 0d., being the result of a recital given at one of the churches.

25th.—London, one bag of lettuce.

28th.—Chingford, 10s.

30th.—An old boy, 6s. 6d. Thetfield, "As I am uncertain about being present at Barkway Chapel on Sunday, kindly accept the enclosed 10s."

We have also received during the above six months on Tuesday and Thursday in each week 56 lbs. of fresh fish, carriage paid, and keeping boxes for firewood.

A Buckhurst Hill friend has been on several occasions and assisted in repairing a number of boots.

One of our old boys, now a married man, has rendered us great service in redecorating several of our rooms, whitewashing, distempering, papering and painting, and has refused to take a penny for it.

Another friend has helped in cutting hedges, blacking stoves, etc.
