I enjoy reading your Links, and agree with the man who said "It pays better to trust in the Lord than it does to advertise." Wishing you every success in your work for the Lord." Sutton "Thank you very much for Links. It is always such a cheer—What a wonderful God we have! He is the same too everywhere. How wonderfully He intervened for His servants, who remained at their own risk in the Solomon Islands. They could get no supplies from Australia and boots, food and medicines were direly needed—A U.S.A. airman came down off the coast, was rescued by christian Islanders and brought to the missionaries who tended to his needs till a plane fetched him away. Meanwhile he was greatly struck by the christian life and work and noted their needs—Soon after another plane flew over dropping boots (the right sizes) medicines etc. so our wonder working God uses the most up to date means to relieve His people. I enclose 6/- towards expenses." Tunbridge Wells, £1.
