12th.—New Barnet Baptist Church, Girls Auxiliary 5/-. Waltham Abbey £10 "After several years of wandering around the far east, our Heavenly Father graciously enabled me to return once more, unharmed and, from such terrible climatic conditions, in good health. I have just enjoyed a month's leave and have had happy fellowship with dear Mother and Father and also at God's House. Apart from the joy of re-union at home, with that great blessing, Godly parents and a spiritual atmosphere for which I must praise God as one of His biggest blessings, the meeting once again in His House with His people is most definitely the welcome part of this return to England. Out in Burma there were few occasions when this was possible and as I was in that country two years and seven months and hardly ever in India, seldom was able to attend a place of worship. During these past years of travel, experience, and no small portion of danger, the Lord has wondrously guided and helped and so, as a small thank-offering, for these and many other mercies, will you please accept enclosed for your personal use. Remembering you all at all times at the Throne of Grace, and thanking you for your many Prayers." Harlington 10/-. EXTRACTS from LETTERS Received by the Box Secretary.

Prittlewell.—"The time has come to open our Box and we are thrilled to find that there is more in it than has been for some time, for which we give God the praise as we know it is all needed for such a large family. We hope that Mr. and Mrs. White and all the Workers are well and all their needs supplied. We remember your Work in prayer."

Tolworth.—"I don't suppose you will remember me, but my small son and I were staying with Mother when you came to tea one Sunday a few weeks ago. Mother sent me two of the little booklets about Mr. White's Home and I shall be very glad if you would kindly send me a box, so that I, too, can help them. How thankful we are that the European War is over and let us pray that the Japanese will very soon be subdued."

Tottenham.—"I have opened the box and am very pleased to send the contents. I have much to thank God for over the past year. He has kept me safe, also my family, which I am grateful for. Also, we still have our home. I shall still continue helping to support the 'Children's Home, and continue praying for the children."

Colchester.—"It gives me great pleasure to forward the enclosed for the practical side of our Lord's teaching, a small mite for such a tremendous work of love and labour yet given in my Saviour's precious Name. So pleased your Box Collections are so encouraging, may they still increase and so ease the burdens of those in charge. May God richly bless you in all your labour of Love for Him and His little lambs. Remembering you in prayer. Kindly remember me too in this great earthly struggle to extend our Master's Kingdom."

Romford.—"Many thanks for letter and also Mr. White's letter which I was very pleased to receive. Have enclosed money which we have collected in our box which gives us great joy to send. We do pray God will bless the work which Mr. White and his helpers are doing and may God guide them in all their undertaking to stay at Tiptree."

Ilford.—"I am enclosing a small contribution for Mr. White's Homes. Am sending it to you so that it may be forwarded with your Box Contributions—I have no box now, it was returned early in the War when I was away from home. Praying that God's richest blessing may attend the Work and Workers."

Tunbridge Wells.—"We are nearing November so I have opened my box and am sending you the contents. You will notice I doubled the amount this time. A family who lost their all at Greenwich and were evacuated down here and for the present are still living in this street, have kindly helped. The children have put their halfpennies and farthings in, and with the mother's help they have doubled my usual amount. I should be very pleased if you could send me one of those little booklets telling about the history of the Home, to pass on to them. I do hope Mr. and Mrs. White and the dear children are keeping well. How very much we have to thank God for. May God continue to bless and help all those who are taking part in the Children's Home."

Bishops Stortford.—"Herewith I have pleasure in enclosing the box collection for the Children's Home. Am sorry it is not more, but our circumstances are altered now, but am hoping to send some socks very soon. Am glad to read of God's goodness to the Home and all the inmates throughout the war years. May His rich blessing still rest upon them and all the Workers including yourself."

Shaftesbury.—"Will you thank Mr. White for his letter. What a good thing it is that you have been at Tiptree during the war. We always pray for the work which is going on there. It is wonderful how God supplies all the money you need. I hope that you will get more money this year than you have ever got before so that the Work may go on prospering."

Prittlewell.—"Many thanks for your inspiring letter and also Mr. White's. God has been good to him and his large family and we have much to praise Him for. We shall pray for Mr. White and you all that you may have God's guidance in your keeping the Home at Tiptree. We, like you, have much to thank God for—His keeping power during the six years of war."

St. Pauls Cray.—"Received your kind and welcome letter. Also Mr. White's. Very pleased to hear such a good account of the splendid work carried on in the Home. God has been good to us all and His tender mercies are over all His works."

Colchester.—"Thank you for your kind letter and the encouraging letter from Mr. White. It was very thoughtful of you to suggest it to Mr. White and very kind of him to respond, considering his very busy time. This 'personal touch' is very encouraging, and when writing next will you say how it was appreciated, and we'll make it a Daily Petition for the proposed change which is in mind. How lovely to know the terrors of war have been lifted, and once again we can live natural lives, as far as the earthly sphere is concerned; once these irritating controls have been lifted we shall feel free again. May God continue to bless you in all your labours of love for Him, and Mr. White with Staff, Abundant Blessing and continual answers to believing prayer. Kindly accept this love gift and may God sanctify it for His use to channels He will guide."

South Woodford.—"It was most interesting to read Mr. White's letter and to know all is well at Tiptree. May God guide them in making decisions for the future of the Home. It must be a delightful place at Tiptree."

Ilfacombe.—"I was very pleased to have Mr. White's letter enclosed, to hear how the work is going on. May God continue to bless the Work and Workers, that the children may know Him and live to be a blessing in the coming days for the extension of His Kingdom."

Burnt Mill.—"I was very interested in the enclosure from Mr. White and also in your own note and can join in praise and thanksgiving to God for all His over ruling providence and care with regard to Tiptree. We both continue to pray for much blessing on all the work of the Home"

Iford.—"Now that the war is over may God's richest blessing rest upon the Homes and may the Director and Officers be guided by the Holy Spirit in the days that now lie ahead."

Waltham Abbey.—"Please find enclosed the contents of my box which I hope will help a little toward the good Work. I shall be pleased to go on collecting and shall see if I can beat this amount."

Southgate.—"Talking of Tiptree, we sincerely hope that it will take precedence over Woodford as the future centre of Mr. White's activities, for humanly speaking it has all the advantages. It remains for the Lord to indicate a directive as to His will, and for this we must wait upon Him."

Bostall Heath.—"We rejoice to know the Work is being blessed and prayers answered."

Epping Green.—"We had our little tea party and opened the box, finding the enclosed amount. May God bless the money and reward the faith of Mr. White and all of his helpers."

North Watford.—"Yes God is indeed good and I thank Him that the dear children at Tiptree have all been kept safe. May He guide you in future plans. I pray His blessing may still rest upon you and your great Work."

South Woodford.—"Thank you for your letter and also Mr. White's message. I think you are doing a fine work as Box Secretary—may it continue to be a joy to you."

East Molesey—"Greetings in the Precious Name! How we join with you all praising our Heavenly Father for all His Goodness to you at the Children's Home and Mission. May the workers be guided aright with regard to the carrying on of the Work at Tiptree with the assurance of 'the good hand of our God upon them' still."

Newick.—"Many thanks for your kind letter also the one enclosed from Mr. White. We do indeed appreciate your thought for asking him and his for doing it. We do thank you for all you have done for the Lord. Thank God that the War is over and for all His loving care over all the children and the Workers as well as ourselves and for the very wonderful way He has watched over us all and supplied our every need through all the years of stress. We will pray with you that God will very definitely guide you whether you are to still stay at Tiptree with your large family."

Norwood.—"It is very encouraging to read what a blessing the Home at Tiptree has been and we shall join with you in prayer that if possible you may be able to develop the work there."

Surbiton.—"It is a grand and lovely work you are doing for our Master and I do wish you God's blessing on all the work you are doing for His little ones."

Harrow.—"Please accept the enclosed which is the amount collected in our box. I can only repeat that we count it an honour to be able to assist in the Lord's work by being associated with such a worthy cause as the Children's Home at Tiptree. We have joined our prayers with others of God's children and rejoice that they have been heard and God is working for the Home in such a remarkable way. We feel that it would be a great advantage to concentrate upon establishing and enlarging (if necessary) the Homes at Tiptree."

Harrow.—"I hope the work will be enabled to develop at Tiptree. It sounds a good proposition. Our God has indeed been marvellously good to us and to you. I hope you will have the 100 children that there will be room for under such happy conditions and surroundings. I am not able to come to your Annual Meetings, but you have my continued good wishes."

Leytonstone.—"I hope you will thank Mr. White for the kind inspiring letter he wrote. We had an awful war, but God in His mercy has once again brought us through. May the Lord richly bless you in all your efforts for Him, and also Mr. White and his band of Helpers."

Custom House.—"I do thank God that He has so undertaken for all the necessity of the Work of the Homes and pray that God will guide you all for the extension of the Work, that the children may be led to know Jesus, and that His Name may be glorified in all that you undertake for Him."

Ipswich.—"Please find enclosed cheque once more. 'In memory of my dear son who once collected for your Home at this time of the year.'"

Kingsbury.—"Very pleased to hear of God's goodness during six years of war. My wife and I can also render thanks for His protection during that period."
