

Bible Born at Mill Grove

Exodus 3: 1-10, the passage that Jenny read on Our Day 2020 was from The Bible Narrative and Illustrated (NirV), and this was particularly appropriate because this idea for this version was actually born during family prayer times at Mill Grove.

Since 1899, the Mill Grove family has spread across the world, and its children and young people are from different continents, backgrounds, cultures and faiths. To our surprise we discovered that no one had thought of a Bible that was equally accessible to all of us. And so we set out to produce one ourselves. The designer is Tony Cantale, who has worked alongside us for many years, and who is responsible for the look and shape of Links, our annual newsletter. The artist is Andy Bisgrove. Both are close friends of the family.

The first edition was published in partnership with the International Bible Society and the video was associated with its launch.

The second and current edition is available in paperback, flexi-back and digital format. We commend it to you unreservedly.
