1st May, 1909.

DEAR FRIENDS,

In presenting our Ninth Report we do so with hearts full of praise and thankfulness to God for bringing us in safety through this another year in the work to which He has called us with its joys and pleasures, and not forgetting the trials and difficulties which have confronted us in our life for the glory of God and the sake of the children. We render to Him all the Glory for the victories won and the good which has been accomplished, recognising that without Him we can do nothing. We know more now than ever before that we are dependent upon Him, and that if this work is to proceed it can and will only as He directs. We know that faith is His gift, and it must be by a "Looking unto Jesus, the beginner and finisher of our faith," that we shall be able to accomplish successfully the task that is set before us.

The Object of the Work.

The Home is for Destitute and Motherless Children.

Preference is given in needy cases to children who have lost their mother. There are several institutions for fatherless children and entire orphans, but it is not many years since the need was felt for helping motherless children. We advised a man some time back who applied for assistance to write to several institutions who might help him by taking some of his children, his wife being dead. The reply he received from most of them was, as the father is alive, they could not help. We had no room, and as the man was quite unable to fully pay for his children, he could not place them out privately, and so he had to wait under great straits until a vacancy occurred. Only those who have lost their mother can realise what home is without her love and care. There are many children we believe whose lives are blighted because the mother is dead, and four or five of them are left all day under the care of a sister too young to control and manage them, and in consequence thereof they run wild, and are exposed to all kinds of harm. Not only is such help a good thing from the children's point of view, but it is also a boon for the men who have lost their wives. Try and picture a man with 6, 7, 8 or 9 children whose wife, a good, hard-working, careful woman, dies. He is earning from 20s. to 28s. per week. He cannot afford to pay for a suitable housekeeper. He has, in many cases, no friends who will help, as they themselves find it a hard fight. He cannot stay at home from work, or he loses that, and, if he could, he would not have the necessary tact and care. Or, from another point of view, a man with circumstances almost the same, but he is out of work, his wife cheers him and encourages him to do his best to find work, and at the same time works herself to keep a roof over their heads and bread in their mouths. She dies, and he has at once lost his best earthly friend, in fact, the heart of the home has gone. What about the husband, and what about the children?

In order to make this clearer I will give specimens of some of the applications received:—

"Having been unfortunate in losing my wife and been left with four children (boys) whose ages range 2 to 11 years, I should be pleased if you could forward me particulars of your home. I am only in poor circumstances but would be willing to pay something towards their support. I have only just come out of Hospital having had to undergo operation with my eyes—if you will please let me know if you could assist me with the children I should be very thankful."

A man called, wife dead, earning 23s. with seven children.

A friend writes:—

"I have another most distressing case—can you help. A man has just lost his wife suddenly leaving him with four girls and nobody at all who can see to them. The father has regular work and is a teetotaler and will pay 2s. 6d. per week each for the children if you can receive them. It is urgent as they are at present with a neighbour who will be glad not to have them."

"Having heard of your Home for Motherless Children I am writing to ask if you will kindly send me particulars of the Home. I am enquiring on behalf of a man who has lost his wife and who has nine children to provide for, the youngest being only two years old. The man earns 23s. a week so of course cannot afford to pay much."

"Having heard of your Home for Motherless Children I write to enquire if you could possibly take a little girl whose mother died seven weeks ago. She is 3½ years old—the middle one of three children left. The father tries to earn a living by means of a fruit barrow but is greatly hampered by the poor children who are left mostly to themselves in the streets."

We do not bind ourselves to assist only motherless children but help, as guided, some entire orphans and fatherless ones. See following applications:—

"I am writing to ask your kindly help under most distressing circumstances. The mother died about seven weeks back through semi-starvation, the husband who has been out of work for a long time took it so to heart that he died last Thursday leaving seven children utterly destitute. If you have any vacancies I feel confident of your practical sympathy."

"Mrs. Booth advised me to write to you concerning a friend of mine who is in great distress being left with six little children and no means of support. Mrs. Booth's home is quite full so she cannot help her with the children. Can you please help by taking any of them. I don't know what will happen to them, it is dreadfully hard for a mother to have her children cry for food and have none to give them. I have known them all their life so therefore know it is quite a true case."

These are but a few specimens—a book could be filled with them. Will any of our readers say that all the cases mentioned are not deserving help—we think not. Will you therefore pray that God may so appear that we may be enabled to "do more."

Now, some have said why are you so anxious about the children? Well, in answer to that we say that our object is not merely to assist the surviving parents and to care for the bodies of the children but we even have a greater object in view than that and that is their souls. We believe in the "old truths" which can never change. The utter depravity of mankind through the fall and his eternal destruction unless he accepts the way God has offered through Christ and immediately he accepts embraces and believes in the finished work of Christ upon Calvary he becomes born again—a new creation—an heir of God and joint with Jesus Christ. Our desire is then that God will use us to point these children to Him, and we praise Him for the many who have come over the line to Jesus.

We have yet another object and that is the method upon which we work concerning the Funds. We do not personally appeal, or publicly ask, for financial assistance, but believe that as this is God's work He will touch the hearts of His people to send, so that we know that the money which we receive is from Him. We want to prove that God is able to-day, the same as ever, to answer the prayers of those who trust Him and pray that he will use this as a means of blessing to many who are desirous of following Him more closely. It has been a time of severe testing right through but we will not give in. We would rather the work ceased than go back from our standard.

It will be interesting to show the Annual Totals since the start:—

The Donation list this year has decreased a little owing to the death of one friend and the inability of some (who sent the previous year) to help on account of business being bad. The repayment list ought also to have been bigger but the unemployment this year has been more than ever, and if a man is out of work he cannot send. Please note that the audited Account is a Statement of Receipts and Payments not of Assets and Liabilities, and it is only right for me to say that our liabilities exceeded our income. We are looking to God to straighten this. We started the year with 70 children and have now 66; nine having left and five been received. Two girls have been sent to service and one boy, an entire orphan, who has been with us 4 years, has been apprenticed to a Jeweller and Silversmith and is doing well.

We have helped since the start 147 cases, and many of those who have left us accepted Christ whilst here, so there is no knowing what good will be the result of the work done so far.

The working parties started for the purpose of helping us to clothe the children have again done splendidly during the year. I give below the Report from one of them.

"The third Annual Report of the Seven Kings Sewing Meeting, 1908. We have much pleasure in presenting to you our third Annual Report and to tell you that we have had another successful year which gives us great encouragement to work on as I am sure we all do that God is blessing the work of our hands. Our object is to provide suitable clothing for the children in the Home at South Woodford. We meet together every Tuesday for work from 2.30 to 7 p.m., when we close our meeting with prayer. We also open our meeting with a portion of scripture and prayer; during the time we are together one of the ladies of our number read to us, and occasionally some friend will come and give us a short address. We should like to take this opportunity of thanking those friends, and extending an open invitation for them to come whenever they can spare the time. We should also like to thank those friends who have come forward at different times with gifts of material and money. We feel sure that God has put it into their hearts to help us in this way. You will see by our balance sheet that our expenditure has increased, but you will also see that our income has increased a great deal more in proportion, for this we feel more than grateful to our God who has been ordering all things for us. We do not want to take any credit to ourselves in this matter, we feel it an honour to be allowed to serve our Heavenly Father and receive His blessing in return, for we know that He has blessed us greatly in this work. What a pleasure to serve such a master. We were unable to attend the Annual Meeting of the Home at South Woodford this year, but some of our ladies visited the Home late in the summer and had a very pleasant time with the children and workers. Our meetings from week to week have been very pleasant and helpful, there has not been the slightest friction, and for this I think we have much to be thankful for. During the year we have made 43 under-garments, 41 overalls, 39 pinafores, 18 aprons, 6 nightdresses, 12 fancy collars—total garments for 1908, 159. We trust that we may be led and guided in the future as in the past and that God may abundantly bless all those who have helped us during the year is the earnest prayer of Yours in Him (Mrs.) L. BIGGS, Hon. Sec. and Treasurer.

Added to this I should like to say are a number of bolster and pillow cases which we have received this year but which will show in the fourth Report of the Sewing Meeting. Also at Christmas we received a large quantity of new games which we still have and which the children play with at specified times.

And now I want to say a word concerning the workers. It does not seem to be generally known that no salaries are paid to any of the workers who simply receive their board and lodging and whatever the Lord may specially send for that purpose. It has also been rumoured that I meet any deficiency from my own private money, which is quite contrary to fact as I have no private money whatever, anywhere, so should be quite unable to do this. We have no props whatever upon which to lean, no grant or annuity, no special church to whom we can look for help but solely upon the arm of God, and it is marvellous to find how God does dispose the hearts of peoples and individuals to help us. For instance Miss Hutchin has been invited to Seven Kings and Theydon Bois for a holiday, Miss F. Hutchin to Cornwall, and Mrs. White to Malvern, thus enabling them to have a well earned rest and change. We have also received at sundry times clothes which have greatly helped us, personally I have not bought any clothes for over four years as the necessary articles, including head gear, have been sent. I should also like to mention the fact that the extra expense incurred by the arrival of my little daughter in January last was met by a kind friend, which was in direct answer to prayer and greatly relieved us. A few donations arriving at the same time from different friends marked specially for my own use.

Our Sister, Miss Hall, who has been here as one of the workers for nearly two years, left us in March last to return to her home in Guernsey preparatory to getting married. We were sorry to lose her and pray that God may abundantly bless her future life.

I will now proceed, as in former years to give extracts from the Diary in order that you may see how the work is daily supported.

MAY. 1st.—From Brownswood Park, 1 jacket, 4 overalls, 1 dress, 6 pair of stockings, 1 pair of socks, 1 petticoat, 6 chemises, 1 ball, 2 picture books and some toys. From Woodford, 4 chemises, 3 petticoats, 4 pianofores, 2 aprons, 4 pairs of stays, 1 pair of knickers. This gave us great encouragement as it came from a working meeting in connection with one of the local Sunday Schools. 2nd.—From Wanstead, 1 pair of boots, 5s., 9s., 5s., 2s. 9 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. 3rd.—We heard the result to-day of the Sunday School Union Examination, 23 of our children having entered and sat for same in last March, and we are glad to report that 19 out of that number passed. 4th.—Parcel of clothes from South Woodford, jar of dripping, portion of cold mutton from Woodford, £1 6s., 5s., 8s., 10s., from a Young Women's Bible Class in connection with one of the local churches. 5th—8s., 15s., with "please accept the enclosed postal order for your work from my mother and father and ourselves." 6th.—From Walthamstow three banners, portion of beef; £1 14s., £1 4s., 10s., 6s., 2s. 7½d., contents of a box held by a French friend. 7th—We held our 8th Annual Meetings to-day in the Woodford Baptist Church kindly lent for the occasion. A piano was also lent by a friend, another friend lent us some beautiful plants, and one of the neighbouring churches, tables and chairs for the tea. The following is a brief outline of the meetings which were well attended. In the afternoon, chair was taken by Mr. Lancaster, supported by Mrs. Charles Barclay, Rev. A. A. Savage, Miss Wickham.

At the Evening Meeting Mr. George White occupied the chair and in the course of an interesting speech said that the history of the Home had been trust in God all along the line, and that had been the secret of its success. He hoped those who sympathised with the work would not let their sympathy evaporate uselessly, but would see that it crystallised in a practical way to help on the work. Mr. Aylott spoke of the work under three headings; (1) The necessity for the work; (2) The divinity of the work; (3) Its necessities. Of its necessity there was abundant evidence, that it was divine was also evident from the fact that God was using these very ordinary people to accomplish an extraordinary work. The keynote of the work was "Have faith in God." Some people who had a regular income were almost overburdened with anxiety and fear in bringing up a small family of two or three children, but Mr. White and his helpers without any regular source of income were bringing up a family of 70. Speaking of the necessities of the Home Mr. Aylott said one of its most urgent needs was a branch seaside Home, even when their Home was free from sickness they never knew what a newcomer might bring with it. It would be a great boon to have somewhere where they could send any children who were ailing at any time. He believed the work of this Home was destined to grow to considerable proportions in the future. Mrs. Charles Barclay gave a most inspiring, powerful and helpful address on the possibilities of power and progress in the Christian life. Dr. Flegg, Mr. V. G. Levett and the Rev. J. Jermyn also gave short addresses of sympathy with the work, and an inspiring meeting closed with the singing of the Doxology.

Letters were read from the Rev. Trevor Fielder, M.A., Rev. G. A. Hamson, Mr. J. Shephard and Mr. J. J. Blundell, regretting their absence from the meeting. During both meetings the children rendered selections of music in a style that reflected much credit on the instructress, Mrs. Aylott. £9 6s. 11d., taken from offering boxes, 9s. 6d., 2 guineas, 2s., 10s., 4 books, 2 frocks, 3 pinafores, pair of brown boots, some china also lent by a friend for the tea. 9th—2s. 6d., 2s., 5s., £1, given by a friend whom we had previously helped and is now in a position to help us (this friend has since died). 10th—10s., 2s. 11th—Dripping, portion of cold mutton, 5s., 5s. 12th—Several parcels of oddments, large box of onions, carrots and seeds for the garden, 10s., 12s., 6s. 14th—£5 from a family who often thinks and prays for our work. 15th—£1. 16th—Some toys from a Wanstead C.E., 5s., 6s., 10s., 5s. 18th—Dripping, portion of cold beef, tin of sweets, bread pudding, pot of dripping, 14s., 5s., £1 10s. 0d. 19th—Parcel of books and toys. 20th—3s. 21st—10s. 6d., 22nd—2s. 6d., 7s. 6d., 5s., 10s., 5s., 5s. 23rd—Parcel of clothes and books, parcel of clothes. 24th—6s., 5s. 26th—8s. 29th—Parcel of clothes, 2s. 6d., 12s. 30th—Parcel of clothes, biscuits, sweets, fruit, £1, £5, 8s., £2 10s. from a Mission in Walthamstow, being a surplus of a Missionary undertaking, greatly appreciated, 5s., 2s. 6d., 5s. 31st—Portion of cooked beef, £1.

We are often being asked as to what way people can help us. This will be best answered by giving you a list of the way in which people have helped us in the past. Some friends have promised quarterly subscriptions, others send donations, and others have taken boxes, sending on the contents each quarter, other friends have started working parties, others have taken work home, such as stockings, etc., which they have mended and returned to us, others have taken some of the washing and brought it back washed, mangled, and aired, others have helped in the garden. These all seem small items, but they considerably help us with our work, and God will not be unmindful of those who even undertake the most menial of tasks for Him. Numerous friends, including churches, have helped us in sending gifts in kind, for which we have been thankful.

Visiting hours for relatives and friends are every Saturday between six and eight (which time must be strictly adhered to, unless special permission is obtained), and for visitors any afternoon between three and five, except Sundays and Mondays.

That God may bless all who have in any way helped during the year is the earnest prayer of Miss Hutchin, Workers and

Yours in Him,

HERBERT W. WHITE.
