A CALL TO THE BELIEVER.

—:O:—

Have faith in God (Mark 11.22).

Faith without works is dead (James 2.17).

By their fruits ye shall know them (Matthew 7.20).

Then (Weymouth's translation) The King will say to those on his right, Come my Father's blessed ones, receive your inheritance of the Kingdom which has been divinely intended for you ever since the creation of the world. For when I was hungry, you gave me food; when I was thirsty, you gave me drink; when I was homeless, you gave me a welcome; when I was ill-clad, you clothed me; when I was sick, you visited me; when I was in prison, you came to see me. When, Lord, the righteous will reply, did we see Thee hungry, and fed Thee; or thirsty, and gave Thee drink? When did we see Thee homeless, and give Thee a welcome? or ill-clad, and clothe Thee? When did we see Thee sick or in prison, and come to see Thee? But the King will answer them,

In solemn truth I tell you that in so far as you rendered such services to one of the humblest of these my brethren, you rendered them to myself. (Matthew 25. 34-40.)

"For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad." (2 Cor. 5.10.)

Workers and children, now, praise God for the twentieth time, join in wishing our friends a very Happy Christmas and every blessing in the New Year.

Our good bill of health has been well maintained and our family of 70 all told are well. Prayer is asked for Miss F. Hutchin (Auntie) who has just passed her 80th birthday, that strength may be given for her to continue in this work in which she has so unselfishly laboured for the past 17 years.

It is now three years on the 13th of this December since I had to take up, by order of the tribunal other work of National importance, and friends will be glad to hear I shall now be released from same before the end of the year, when I hope to devote the whole of my time as hitherto with the work of the orphanage and evangelistic work. During the past twelve months as opportunity has occurred I have spoken at the following places: Mr. Linder's Children's Hall, Buckhurst Hill; Freehold Mission, Muswell Hill; Poplar and Bromley Tabernacle; Princes Hall, Buckhurst Hill; Assembly Hall, Maynard Road, Walthamstow; Lifeboat Mission, Leytonstone; Lighthouse Baptist Church, Bow; Wesleyan Church, Chingford Hatch; M.O.B., Walthamstow; Glenfarg Hall, Catford; Central Baptist Church, Stratford (Service of Song); Beechcroft Road Mission, Woodford; Baptist Church, Highams Park; Vineyard Congregational Church, Richmond; Woodford Salvation Army; Railway Mission, Stratford; Higham Hill Road Baptist Church and P.S.A.; Gospel Hall, Shoburyness; Baptist Church, Sidcup; Woodford Green Brotherhood; Spruce Hills Congregational Church, Walthamstow; Union Church, Anstey and Hornmead; Marsh Street Juniors, Walthamstow; Baptist Church, Bow; Lloyd Park Hall Juniors, Walthamstow; Belfast Road Hall, Stoke Newington; Hawthorn Hall Men's Institute, the Baptist Tabernacle, Barking, and Gensing Road Hall, Hastings.

26th. Worthing, 5/-, with "Just a line to assure you of our existence and real sympathy in your work. I trust the Lord is crowning your labours all the while with His seal and blessing. It seems long since we met, but we are sure of a meeting above. . . I am unable to do much, but am learning to 'endure as seeing Him who is invisible.' Please remember us in your prayers."

27th. London, 22 lbs. fish.

29th. Woodford Green, "For some years I have subscribed to a society which has now been dissolved, and I propose to give the amount to your good work, viz., 2 guineas per annum, for which I enclose a cheque for first year." Tunbridge Wells, £5. Norwood, 5/-.

30th. London, 22 lbs. fish.

JUNE.

2nd. Wood Green, "Do so hope you have a very blessed time on the 6th. Should very much like to be with you all, but am afraid it is not possible this year. Am enclosing £1. A tiny bit of lubrication to help the wheels go round. Canonbury, £5, with "Thanks for your advice of Annual Gathering. My wife and I trust you will have a very encouraging time. We shall not be in London, but trust the enclosed will help to stimulate you for continuing the good work you have your hands engaged upon. With continued interest. . . ."

3rd. Woodford, box of wool, knitting needles, bible and hymn book. London, 25 lbs. fish. Woodford Green, one and a half dozen collecting boxes and 1 dozen rubber heels. Hove, "I hope you have got set free from the war work and that you are none the worse for all the extra work you have had put on you. What a blessed thing it is that we can, in whatever position we may be thrust into, 'do all to the Glory of God.' I hope all the members of your young family are giving you pleasure and that many of them are truly taking on with the Lord Jesus. We do not know what they may become. How good it is to read of men and women without any worldly prospects—who just by looking to Jesus, and seeking to please Him in the little things of daily life, He has so led them on to trust and know Him, that they have become leaders in His Kingdom. How such men are needed now, when all appear to be seeking more comfort and easier times, but ignoring the One who calls us to take His Yoke upon us, and in doing so find how blessed it is to be yoked with Him, and that He bears the heavy burdens so that ours may be light. What a driver is the devil—never allowing his dupes time to stop and think—hurry up,—always, some new thing—Our Master says sit down and rest awhile—Mary chose the better part which He said should not be taken away from her. We have been having better times on the front than hitherto, but I wish that we might hear of some coming right out to the Lord. Sorry to say I am far from strong on my legs, but thank God this does not hinder one from rejoicing in THE LORD. I am enclosing you £1 for the boys, praying that you may have the joy of seeing many taking the Lord Jesus into their hearts. With very best wishes to all." Brighton, "Please accept enclosed contribution, £1, to your work, and wishing you every blessing." Theydon Bois, 10/-. Royston, £1, with "Best wishes for your anniversary. May you each realise the over-shadowing of His presence and get fresh inspiration to work till Jesus comes." Tunbridge Wells, "My dear mother wishes me to send you £1 with her best wishes towards your great work. She is a terrible sufferer and now quite helpless." Brighton, 2/6. Kilmalcolm, £3. Shanklin, 5 guineas, with "On not one single occasion have we been able to come to your Annual Festival, and this year we are again deprived by being at this beautiful spot for a short holiday. Our very best wishes are yours, and as a small token and for your personal use we enclose a cheque with our kindest regards to you both. Trusting you will have a great time.—Your old friend."

5th. Woodford, £1. Whitstable, £1. Merton, 5/- and 5/-. Leytonstone, 2/-, with "Though I am unable (through ill-health) to attend meeting on Friday, my thoughts and prayers will be with you. Trusting you and all the dear workers are well. Add my tiny gift to collection." Muswell Hill, £1. Barnes, "I am enclosing a cheque for £2 which is but a small token of my gratitude to our God and Father for His goodness in preserving the lives of my two boys and bringing them safely home and which I send on to you to be used for your good work in His Name, and for His dear sake. Hoping you will have a happy and encouraging time to-morrow." London, 22 lbs. fish.

6th. Hove, "I am reminded that you hold your meeting to-morrow. May it prove a time of real spiritual blessing to all. I enclose 30/-, 20/- of which was handed me by a lady to go to London to some meetings, but I am not sure whether I shall be able to go. With love in the Lord, Your brother in Him." Shoeburyness, 10/-. Muswell Hill, £1. Cromer. "As we are away from home and unable to attend your meeting to-morrow, I am sending on our quota to the 'opportunity.' We pray that you may have a real good time in spite of your disappointment in Mrs. Barclay being unable to speak; 10/- enclosed." An Old Girl 9/3, and her friend 4/9. Walthamstow, 10/- and 10/-. The offering at our Annual Meeting, £10. S. Woodford, "Enclosed please find 35/- as a contribution to your Home in Crescent Road, collected among a few ladies in South Woodford. It is with much pleasure we send this and with every good wish for the welfare of your Home." Leytonstone, 10/-. £1/11/3, being amount collected by an anonymous friend specially for Boots. Dunfermline. "It is my privilege to enclose 5/-, and small tho' it is it comes with the earnest prayer that every blessing may be yours at this time." Woodford, 2/-. Woodford, contents of a little girl's box, £1/1/-, Woodford, 10/-. Buckhurst Hill, £3/0/1½, which amount was collected weekly at a children's service. Cropredy, 5/-. Lewisham, 3/-. Leytonstone, "Please accept the enclosed 10/6. It is the collection of one or two who were not able to be at your Annual Meeting."

9th. Woodford, basket of cakes.

10th. London, 19 lbs. fish.

11th. Leytonstone, 2/- and 10/-. Manor Park, 10/-. Southampton, 10/-. Woodford, £10.

13th. London, 22 lbs. fish.

14th. Forest Gate, 6/-. Woodford, 2/6. Cann Hall Sewing Meeting, Leytonstone, 6 chemises, 4 petticoats, 6 pairs knickers, 1 pair stockings, 1 pair mittens (these garments were just what was needed for wear the following week).

17th. From a Walthamstow Sunday School, £2/10/-. Tarvin, "My brother and I want to send the enclosed 10/- as a thankoffering for the lovely holiday we have just spent together in N. Wales. There we have been able to enjoy to the full all the wonders of God's creation, and they have filled our hearts with praise to think that the Creator of all those beauties was He who gave Himself for us on Calvary, and so we wish you to accept this small gift towards the expenses of your large family, remembering that God not only creates but sustains all things."

18th. Woodford, fish kettle. Wanstead, 2/6. Sturry, "Enclosed please find small contribution 5/- which R.M. wished me to forward when he was home on leave from France. Hoping you are still being much blessed in your work for the Master. We remember you in prayer."

19th. London, 20 lbs. plaice.

21st. Walthamstow, 10/- and 3/-. From a Walthamstow P.S.A., £1/8/-.

24th. London, 20 lbs. fish.

27th. London, 20 lbs. fish.

28th. Lansdowne Sewing Circle, 12 pinafores, 12 chemises, 6 pairs bloomers, 5 pairs knickers, 5 overalls, 4 dresses, 3 boys' shirts, 3 pillow cases, 2 blouses. Also 21 knitted vests, 14 pairs bloomers, 12 pinafores, 7 chemises, 6 pairs knickers, 4 petticoats, 2 flannel-ette nightdresses, 3 dresses, 2 pillow cases, 2 knitted caps, received on Dec. 21st last, which we regret were omitted in our last issue.

30th. Woodford, 10/6. Walthamstow, 6/-. (contents of box). Newick, "Please find enclosed 15/- (contents of box). We trust the Lord is supplying your every need, for He abideth faithful. Praise His holy Name." Catford, "I again have great pleasure in enclosing one guinea from the boys and girls of our Sunday School." From a Leytonstone Sunday School, 100 eggs.

JULY.

1st. London, 28 lbs. fish.

2nd. Walthamstow, 5/-. Woodford Bridge, £1.

3rd. Brighton, £5. Thornton Heath, £1/12/6. Bristol, "Kindly put the enclosed 10/- to whatever use you think best as a thankoffering."

4th. Anon., 3 pairs knickers, 4 waistcoats, and one painting book, with "I hope you will be able to make use of these few things. No doubt you have some little boys they fit. I had the pieces by me and the Lord told me to make them for the dear children. I think it best not to give address. I believe in 'Let not your left hand know what your right hand doeth.' I hope the book will be useful. The dear boy it belonged to is with our dear Lord and Saviour; his body lies somewhere in France." London, 24 lbs. fish. Hyde Park, W. "Will you please accept the enclosed 10/- for the Home, which I send with best wishes and prayers for its welfare. You may have heard that my dear husband died a prisoner of war behind the German lines last year. I am doubling my subscription this year, because knowing how God alone can bring comfort to the heartbroken I wish to do all I can to help on this work, which I know is your aim and endeavour. If you would care to send me on some loose copies of your Quarterly Magazine I will distribute them in this neighbourhood and pray for results. No one could possibly read about the Home without wishing to help and I am a great believer in the power of literature as a means of information, if prayer is behind it."

6th. Woodford, £1/4/-.

7th. Muswell Hill, £1. Shoeburyness, 5/-, 10/-, 5/-, 10/-, 10/-. Shoebury Mothers, £1. Shoebury Sunday School, £1, handed to me after conducting week-end services. London, 20 lbs. fish.

9th. Leytonstone, £1. A Woodford Sunday School, 10/10.

10th. London, 19 lbs. fish. Kingston, £1. Southampton, 10/- for Home Cot. Denmark Hill, £2. Crewe, 5/-. Shoebury, £1/11/4. Ilford, "I have a Mothers' Meeting of quite poor women at Barking, and have encouraged them to bring any farthings they can spare, which they put in a box Monday by Monday, and when they have accumulated I send them to some worthy object as an offering. The enclosed 30/- is the product of about three years. I am sure it could not be sent to a worthier cause than to help motherless children, and more especially as their souls are cared for as well as their bodies. Wishing you God's blessing in your work."

11th. Anstey, hamper of gooseberries. Stoke Newington, 3 frocks, 6 petticoats.

12th. Woodford, basket of cabbages.

14th. Forest Gate, £5/5/-. Woodford, 3 suits of clothes and some collars.

15th. Buckhurst Hill, £4/10/-. Anstey, "My husband wishes me to send £5 to help help you over next Saturday. Please use it as you may feel led." Woodford, basket of gooseberries. Seaview, 1 pr. of s.h. shoes. Woodford, flags for decoration.

17th. Stoke Newington, 2 frocks, 4 shirts, 1 petticoat.

18th. Leytonstone, 1 tin and 1 box sweets.

19th ("Peace Saturday"). This has been a great day for the children. Our neighbours collected amongst themselves and bought fireworks and joined with us in the evening in a bonfire and firework display. All the children present received a bun, sweets and gooseberries, and £4/4/9 was handed over to me by the neighbours towards our funds.

22nd. London, 19 lbs. fish.

23rd. Woodford, £10.

24th. Woodford, a phonograph with 84 records.

25th. London, 19 lbs. fish.

27th. Walthamstow M.O.B., £3/2/4½. Leytonstone, 10/-.

8th. Woodford boxholder, 17/9. Wanstead, 2/6. London, 20 lbs. fish.

9th. Woodford, 39 quarterns bread. During the Bakers Strike we have been supplied daily, for which we praise the Lord. Woodford, basket of cabbages. Thornton Heath, 14/-. Bow, 5/-.

11th. Walthamstow, 10 quarterns bread. Sidecup, £1, £1, 10/-. Brighton, Anon., £1/10/-, with "If still carrying on with the children put 'Yes' on cheque." Leytonstone, 10/-.

12th. Woodford, 2 quarterns bread, some toffee and cakes.

13th. Wood Green, parcel of oddments.

14th. Ware, 8 shirts. A friend from Gloucester staying with us gave the children a picnic in Wanstead Park, providing meals.

15th. Dursley, "Enclosed please find £1 note towards your work for the children (from the Lord's portion)." Clapton, contents of box 13/3¼. Woodford, one pair of new shoes, parcel of oddments, basket of plums and apples.

16th. Woodford, basket of cabbages. Leytonstone, 2 pairs second-hand boots.

17th. Gloucester, £2.

18th. Parkstone, £2/2/0.

19th. London, 28 lbs. fish.

21st. Leytonstone, £1/13/6 and 10/-.

These amounts were collected by a friend towards a picnic for the children. As it was a wet day we had a good romp at home and enjoyed the goodies provided. Our friend and his wife joining us.

22nd. London, 24 lbs. fish.

23rd. Bow, 10/- and 3/6. Woodford, basket cabbages, 1½ lbs. tomatoes.

25th. Walthamstow, 11/-, being an amount over from peace celebrations in one of the streets.

26th. London, 24 lbs. fish. Walthamstow, parcel of second-hand clothes.

27th. Twickenham, £5 with "I have pleasure in enclosing a little help towards the work with which the Lord has entrusted you. With best wishes and my prayers for its continued blessing and guidance." St. Leonard's, 10/-. Woodford, £10.

30th. Hove, "The Lord has graciously blessed me in some work I have been doing here—I was paid at double the rate I should have received in London, through His overruling—and so I have great pleasure in forwarding the enclosed £10 for the Lord's work. We have also been having some blessed times spiritually; I myself, having had a good deal of joy—this is the result of having a good many 'waiting' meetings with a few others—but I am longing for the full manifestation of the Baptism in the Holy Ghost. I presume you are now freed from work of 'National importance' and are engaged in 'Work of Eternal importance.' With love and best wishes. May the Lord Himself enrich you and bless you abundantly." Ilford, "Enclosed please find a small contribution of 10/- towards your good work. I do not want an acknowledgment, but wishing you much blessing in your work for the children." Sidcup, 4 frocks, 7 petticoats, 3 pinafores, 2 blouses, 3 pairs knickers, 2 shirts, 2 dressing jackets, 1 collar, 1 pair combs, 1 pair stockings. Woodford, parcel of second-hand garments. London, 24 lbs. fish. Woodford, basket of cabbages. Walthamstow, £4 and 5/-.

SEPTEMBER.

1st. Woodford, "A friend" £1—some toys and basket of apples.

2nd. Walthamstow, "Herewith cash £1/10/-, which please accept as a little help for your Home. We are grateful to you for your splendid services to us to-day as preacher, for they must have been helpful to all. Someday may you have the joy of knowing that fruit has been gathered from the seed sown to-day. God bless you in your noble work."

3rd. From a friend staying in Gloucester, box of plums. London, 20 lbs. fish. Guernsey, bag of tomatoes, 1 lb. butter and cake.

4th. Given to me by a friend on the Railway Station, £1. Plumstead, 2/6, with "I wish I could come and see you, but Rom. 8.28 must be true and so by grace I am content to do a large amount of tract distribution and our loving God has graciously blessed me in that special work. You will agree that I ought to be very grateful to our loving God, seeing early in January (if spared) I shall then be 87, and am now writing this without glasses. With christian love and prayers for you all. Till He come."

5th. London, 28 lbs. fish.

6th. Basket of fish. Durban S.A., £10.

8th. Walthamstow, 5/-.

16th. Plumstead, "I am now sending you on another trifle, 2/6, for your own dear children, and 2/6 for your wayfarers." London, 24 lbs. fish. Clapton, 5/- . Deal, £1, with "I am enclosing you a little thankoffering for the Lord's goodness to us in answering prayer in a very special way and we can only say with the apostle 'He who hath delivered, doth deliver and will yet deliver,' because His love is as great as His power, and is the same yesterday, to-day and for ever. The Lord is still giving much encouragement in the open air and we trust you are having the same blessing." Woodford, 5/-.

18th. Leytonstone, "I have much pleasure in enclosing £2/2/- which is our fee for the services of supply during holiday season. Mr. — filled our pulpit on one Sunday during August, and he wished us to donate this to your Home, which we gladly do, wishing you God speed in your good work among our young friends." 25th. Leytonstone, £1/1s., 7/6. Woodford, £10. Friend in Leytonstone, 2/- . Walthamstow, "Please accept a small sum of 5/- from myself and aged Aunt. We both feel it so little to send you for large family, but after reading your report just received we feel how God has blessed your labour of love and we know He is still going to do so, as He is faithful and His eye is upon them that trust Him, for He knoweth them that are His, therefore as He has promised to provide for your motherless children He will do it."

26th. Ripon, "Thanks very much for 'Links' received this morning. It rejoices one's heart to read how wonderfully the Lord has sustained you and your fellow helpers in His work and supplied all your needs through such a trying time. Praise the Lord there is nothing too hard for Him and I am sure He will support you in your labour of love. I feel I should like to have fellowship in the work, so am enclosing 10/-. We have had some good times among the lads since last I wrote you, have seen many precious souls saved and many of God's children have spoken of receiving blessing. We are still proving with St. Paul that the Gospel of Christ is still the Power of God unto Salvation to everyone that believeth. Truly the Lord hath done great things for us, whereof we are glad. Hallelujah! To His be all the glory." Bow, Friends came with S.S. class of boys and brought a splendid new football for our boys, £1 and 3/-. Woodford Green, 15/8 (contents of collecting box).
