

22nd. Woodford Boot Club, £1. 7s. 1d. An old girl, £1. Stoke Newington, 3s., with "Please accept for your work among the children. It is only a small amount, but I am a widow, and the dear Lord knows it is all I can send at present."

24th. Wanstead, with "We have much pleasure in enclosing £5 and trust that the necessary help is forthcoming. These are very difficult times, and probably your faith is being greatly exercised, but trust as you have been helped in other very difficult times you will still find His promises hold good, and that His children obey Him when He prompts them to send along the help you need." An old girl, 10s., Leytonstone, 2s. 6d., Walthamstow, a large parcel of new garments worth over £10, including two blankets which we were needing that day for new children.

25th. Hove, £1, with "It is a long time since I heard anything concerning you; I hope you have been well, and able to attend to your many calls. Your last report with account of your Annual was most encouraging. I am sorry to say, owing to bad times, my income is decreasing, and I am obliged to reduce all my contributions. Hoping that things will recover, but the Lord knows, and He does not fail." Stratford, £1. 15s. 1½d., handed to me after a meeting.

27th. Leytonstone, £2. 10s., "with love from our Sunday School."

29th. Winchester, £5. Westcliffe, 10s.

30th. Boro' Market, 8 sacks vegetables, and box of soups. Woodford, 7 lbs. cocoa. Twickenham, 10s.

Walthamstow, with "Enclosed please find 10s. 6d. being a small gift from the Y.M.B.C. at G.R.B.T." Southampton, with "Please accept the enclosed £2 for the Home, and £1 for yourself" Twickenham, £2. 10s.

20th. North Brixton, 7 guineas, with "I have much joy in sending you the enclosed cheque, the result of our collection in Sunday School, etc., yesterday. We want you to provide a good Christmas dinner with Christmas pudding, etc., for your Orphanage, together with oranges, apples, etc., and use the rest towards some other meal." This gift came as a great encouragement, as it wonderfully made up, and took the place of some who could not send this Christmas. Doncaster, "I have much pleasure in enclosing £5 as a gift to the Lord, and as a contribution towards the maintenance of your boys and girls.

I trust things are well, and that the hand of the Lord is upon you all in His work. Keep looking up—God is wonderful, and has no difficulties. We are all agreed there are great times coming. May we all be found worthy to stand before the Son of Man. Of course there is a worthiness which is ours by reason of our standing in Him, but this is not what I mean. I mean that spiritual experience which is only given to those who are willing to pay the price so to speak." Clapton, "I have pleasure in sending you £5." Forest Gate, 5s. Brighton, 7s. 6d. Forest Gate, 2s. 6d. Colchester, Anon., 3 guineas. Barking, 5s. Tower Hill, 5s. Brighton, "Enclosed please find cheque for £2, a trifle to help forward your noble work for the Master in caring for His little ones. May He richly bless you and yours and make you the means of winning each young life to the Saviour and His service, and to be useful men and women and noble citizens." Walthamstow, 10s. Wanstead, 15s. Barkway, £1. West Norwood, £1.

30th. Wanstead, £1. 11s. 6d. with "Please accept the enclosed for yourselves and your own children. I suppose it is not too late for Father Christmas to give them a present. We will leave it to you to get them some little present you think they would like. With all good wishes for the New Year." Royston, £1, with "If it can be the will of our Heavenly Father, I trust you will come into possession of that freehold with its buildings—He is rich and has His faithful stewards ready if it is to be. I shall be interested to know the result. Yours in that Blessed Hope."

31st. Hove, 2s. 6d. St. John's Wood, £5 with "I have thought so much about your work and all the children I saw in your Home the other day, and I do pray that God will continue to bless your work for these little ones, and that He will supply all your need. I know how deeply interested my beloved friend Mrs. Barclay was in your work, and in all the children, and I feel I should like to send a New Year gift in memory of her. I shall be very glad if you and Mrs. White will accept £1 for any little special comfort you may need, and the other £4 is for the Home. May God bless you all in this New Year." Kilmacolm, £3 "With all good wishes for the New Year to one and all." Anon, £1 with "Towards 'New Home' you are thinking of 'if the Lord will.' If not, then you can use it in the ordinary way: no acknowledgement for this gift, only asking that you will pray for the sender, who has been passing through deep waters." Dublin, 2s. with "May God bless and keep you and in the coming New Year be very near beside you and give you His rich reward." Stoke Newington, "I am enclosing £2. 15s. to which I have made up the Mothers' Meeting account, including 2s. 6d. from a friend. I hope you will all have a very happy time, and that we shall see you at the meeting on Feb. 6th." (Our dear friend the sender, who was keenly interested in this work, was called to Higher Service a short time after sending this, and was therefore not at the meeting referred to.) Woodford, £12. 10s. being part proceeds of an annual collection organised by a neighbour on his own initiative, and which is greatly appreciated. Chingford, 10s. Anon, 10s. marked "Friend." Bedford, 5s. with "A copy of Links, giving a most interesting account of your peregrinations, receipts, perpetrations, plans, and purposes, reached me this morning after roaming about the country, and I write a few lines to say how glad I am that you are still doing exploits, and to wish you every success and prosperity in the New Year. It is good to see from the paper that the care for the little folk and the preaching of the Gospel to them and to others go hand in hand, and that you evidently have the confidence of Christian people and churches in your neighbourhood. I hope you will be able to get that building. It seems from the description printed to be O.K., and the price very low. My wife says she'd like to put all our money in it and come and help you."

JANUARY

1st. Shoebury, £3. £1, £2, handed to me at the close of week-end services.

2nd. Woodford, £7. 10s. being the second instalment from our neighbour who so very kindly makes the Christmas collection.

We hope that you and Mrs. White are well, and that the Lord is abundantly blessing the work. You will, I am sure, be interested to know that our boy ——— who gave his heart to the Lord at your meeting on Southsea Beach has now launched out into God's work. With our united best wishes. Yours in our coming Lord.

FEBRUARY

1st. Newington Green, £1 from a worker in the China Inland Mission. Leytonstone, "Please find enclosed £2. 12s. the amount of my collection, 16s. of which I have collected from the farthings of the L.B.B.C., praying God's continued blessing for you and all your helpers. Be not weary in well-doing, for in due season you shall reap if you faint not."

3rd. A Sunday School class came from Leytonstone, bringing three games and cakes and sweets. Puckeridge, "I am at last sending the £10 to you, left to me by an old Hornmead friend, and which I felt I should like to pass on to you. Perhaps you would kindly write to ——— and tell him I have sent cheque to you, and say I feel sure that his dear partner would be glad if she could only know that I had sent it on for your work, as she was interested in the same." Walthamstow, 2s. 6d. Woodford, "Our C.E. Society have the pleasure of once again enclosing £1. 11s. 6d. for the work of the Children's Home: the money represents part of the proceeds of our Carol singers' collection. Wishing you much blessing during the present year." A.C., 2s.

4th. Leyton, £2. 5s. with "Will you kindly accept the enclosed towards the carrying on of your work, in which my mother has been interested for some time past, although not able to do a great deal financially. The amount is made up of sums of 5s. which she has been receiving from April to January. She has not been in need of it, and is not likely to be now, as she feels she is soon to pass over the border. It is her earnest wish that you accept the enclosed, and forward the receipt to ———, the donors, so they can see the use their money has been put to." Leintwardine, 2s. 6d. Cheltenham, 2s. 6d.
